sketch in permanent ink showing proposed changes in red, to become part of the record, must be filed for approval by the examiner. (See MPEP 608.02(p)). On page 6 of Applicants response, in the 10th line of full text an "Exhibit A" is referred to. No "Exhibit A" denoted as such accompanied Applicants' response. Furthermore the changes in the overall cross-section of Figure 3, size and disposition of ducts 68, elimination of parts of the casing, pipes etc. appears to be blatantly new matter for which applicants have provided no reasonable explanation. One cannot supplement the original disclosure by amending the drawings beyond what they will originally support.

Furthermore no "clean copy of a Form PTO-1449" (response, page 5, 3rd full paragraph) was provided.
